An Elite Core

Did you know?

• Of more than 15,000 business schools worldwide, only about 725 (5 percent) are accredited by AACSB International.

• Most B-school rankings start with AACSB-accredited schools, yet typically only 25 percent of those schools make the final rankings.

• The UB School of Management is ranked in all the major rankings—Bloomberg Businessweek, Financial Times, Forbes, U.S. News & World Report—usually in the top 15-20 percent of this elite group.

Bloomberg Businessweek

• Bloomberg Businessweek ranks the UB School of Management’s full-time MBA program as one of the best in the nation.

• The school’s Executive MBA and Professional MBA programs are among the best in the U.S. in their categories as well.

• Bloomberg Businessweek also ranks the UB School of Management as one of the country’s “Top Undergraduate Business Programs.”

AACSB Accredited

All academic programs in the UB School of Management are accredited by AACSB International - The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. This prestigious accreditation is considered to be the hallmark of management education.

The Wall Street Journal

WSJ has ranked UB MBAs among the top 10, worldwide, for their team skills and leadership potential.

Forbes

Forbes magazine ranks the UB School of Management as one of the best business schools in the world, based on the return on investment it provides MBA graduates.

Financial Times

The Financial Times ranks the UB School of Management’s Executive MBA program as one of the world’s best.

U.S. News & World Report

• The UB School of Management is ranked a “Best Business School” in U.S. News & World Report’s annual ranking of MBA programs.

• The UB School of Management is the only school in the Buffalo-Niagara region to be included in this MBA ranking.

• U.S. News & World Report ranks the UB School of Management as one of the country’s best undergraduate business programs.

• The school is ranked higher than any other business school in the SUNY system.